

We claim:

1. A deflector assembly for an automobile sunroof comprising:

a generally elongate visor member for deflecting air having opposed

5 end portions;

a pedestal member mountable to each of said end portions to form said deflector assembly; and,

means for securing said pedestal onto said automobile to removably retain said visor member adjacent said sunroof.

10

15